Personas

The Funder

Karishma Ramprasad

Position:
Transformation executive

Industry:
Finance

Education:
Masters degree in social development

Location:
Cape Town, South Africa

Age:
42

Needs:

- Information about the financial sector transformation code.
- She is interested in information on ASISA's programmes that will help her deliver on her B-BBEE mandate.
- Optimise regulatory compliance.
- Access info to hear how her funding is being applied and how her brand is being displayed on the website.
- This could also be a potential funder who needs information on what they can fund.

Pain points:

- Extremely busy and needs a portal that can give her the information she needs quickly and efficiently.
- She is no stranger to the industry, and realises there are many "not so credible" sources for the information she requires to make the finance decisions on a day to day basis.

Story:

Karishma used to work as an international tax specialist, and has since joined an investment company, working in an executive capacity in a strategic and operational role.

She is tasked with improving her company's B-BBEE compliance, and make sure she gets a return on investment in this regard.

She's looking for information on programmes she can trust.

Goals:

- Hopes to find up and coming SME's to procure from, and to better her company's B-BBEE standing.
- To find sound and functioning enterprises to invest in now, so as to reap rewards in the near future.
- Wants to diversify her portfolio while managing the risk to achieve her desired returns.
- Looking for opportunities to deploy her capital to earn Socio-ecomic Development (SED), Consumer Financial Education (CFE), Enterprise, Supplier Development (ESD) and Preferencial Procurement (PP)
- Looking for stats and programmes.

ESD / Foundation

The Transactor

Cindy-lee Jacobs

Position:
Investment administrator

Industry:
Finance

Education:
BSc in Finance

Location:
Cape Town, South Africa

Age:
45

Story:

Cindy-lee is an investment administrator who provides support to the investment and marketing teams.

She users ASISA academy website to find relevant programmes to help increase her knowledge.

Needs:

- To maintain her skills levels.
- Needs the latest statistics, standards and guidelines.

Goals:

- Gain enough knowledge to progress in her current organisation and upskill.
- To be able to assist her colleagues with the latest and most accurate information.
- Understand industry trends.
- Technical expertiese.

Pain point:

- Cindy battles to find relevant and structured information.
- Struggles to find justification for her company to send her on training courses, which will enable her to reach her goal of becoming a Senior investment analyst.

Umbrella / Academy

The Undergrad

Sindiswa Molweti

Position:
Student

Industry:
Finance

Education:
UNISA (final year)

Location:
Cape Town, South Africa

Age:
26

Story:

Sindiswa is studying full time for her Honours through UNISA (final year)and has a keen interest in the finance space.

Sindiswa is doing her best to either get an internship, or a full time position once she has completed her studies.

Needs:

- She is seeking short course / workshops drawing experience from professionals in the industry, and up-skilling for work readiness programmes.
- Finding a job.

Goals:

- Find work in the financial industry.
- To find additional comprehensive financial online courses to do so as to launch her into the finance industry.
- Finding an internship.

Pain points:

- She feels overwhelmed by the amount of courses out there, and is not sure which ones would add the most value to her career.
- Getting a foot in the “financial services” door.

The Member (HR)

Brian Petterson

Position:
Human resources manager

Industry:
Recruitment for financial services sector

Education:
Degree in human resource management from UCT

Location:
Cape Town, South Africa

Age:
45

Story:

Brian has a degree in human resource management and works as an HR manager - and is an ASISA member. He is continuously on the hunt for skills development courses for people within his organisation.

Brian is also a requester for bespoke course development.

Needs:

- Looking for quality courses to send his staff on.
- Skills development for staff within his organisation.
- Information around financial services legislation.

Goals:

- Find up to date and relevant HR legislation.
- Implement transformation within his company.

Pain point:

- Understanding the industries perspectives and responses to legislation that comes out around employment equity.

Academy

The Mirror (internal)

Mary
Caleb

Position:
Legal adviser

Industry:
Financial Services

Education:
A Bachelor of Science (B.S.) in Finance from UCT

Location:
Cape Town, South Africa

Age:
40

Story:

Mary obtained her B.S in finance and was head-hunted by ASISA Academy in her final year. She started off as an intern, and quickly got offered a full time position.

Needs:

- She is not very tech savvy, yet needs to gather content and update the ASISA web sites.
- She needs a website that is easy to navigate, and functionality that will allow her to easily send links.

Goals:

- She wants to upskill herself in her own time, to enable her to progress to the next level in her career.
- She wants to add more value to her current position.

Pain point:

- Juggling her multiple job responsibilities.

The Beneficiary

Tsepo Mokoena

Position:
Tractor driver

Industry:
Farming

Education:
Matric certificate

Location:
Wellington, South Africa

Age:
31

Story:

Tsepo matriculated, and works as tractor driver on a farm in Wellington. Tsepo is having difficulty managing his debt, and finds it hard to financially cope.

Needs:

- He needs to find a way to better manage his finance, and get out of debt.

Goals:

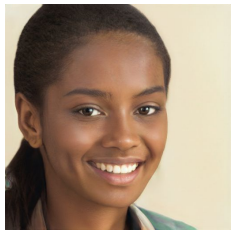

- Manage his financial affairs more appropriately.
- Find his way out of debt.

Pain points:

- Tsepo is battling to manage his income.
- Tsepo's first language is Xhosa, and he would like to find financial literacy programs in his language of choice.

Foundation

The Entrepreneur

Position:
Entrepreneur

Industry:
Formal cross-sector

Location:
Cape Town

Age:
35

Tembi
Matwa

Story:

Tembi started a corporate printing service and plans to expand the business.

To grow her business she intends on purchasing more printers to speed up her service offering.

Needs:

- Better equipment to service her growing customer base.
- Funding to buy the equipment she needs.
- Professional business development support.

Goals:

- Grow her business to a point where she can hire additional staff.
- Purchase 2 new high end colour printers.
- Acquire funding and professional business support.

Pain points:

- Lack of funds, to grow her business.
- Lacks the know how to grow her business.

The Browser

Position:
Fund manager

Industry:
Finance

Location:
Cape Town

Age:
31

Alisia
van Staden

Story:

Alisia heard about ASISA and is trying to create a personal understanding of the ASISA as a whole. She'd like to browse general information such as what programmes ASISA (Academy) offers, and how it works.

She also interested in what kind of courses ASISA offer, and at what cost.

Needs:

- A clear and concise website, which she can quickly scan and find information that is interesting to her for example, who works at ASISA and what ASISA offers.

Goals:

- To quickly understand the various entities that make up ASISA.
- To find general information, while staying anonymous.

Pain points:

- Remaining anonymous.
- Finding a general understanding of ASISA and its entities.

Umbrella

The Influencer

Position:
Freelance Economist

Industry:
Journalism

Location:
Johannesburg

Age:
40

Benjamin
Liu

Story:

Benjamin heard about ASISA and is trying to create a personal understanding of the ASISA as a whole. He is looking for information around legislation and media releases.

He consults to trade unions and writes independant media articles.

Needs:

- He needs to receive newsletters and information packs.
- The ability to search, find, engage, transact and then depart.

Goals:

- A seamless user experience to get the tasks he needs done quickly and easily.
- Wishes to receive a brief and clear value proposition.

Pain points:

- Getting content he'd like to interact with quickly.
- Finding a personal understanding of ASISA.